A door on the right leads into the hall and a French window (or a door) leads into the garden on the left. Between the door R. and the audience is a sofa, drawn slightly away from the wall so that anyone sitting there is in full view of the audience. There is a table in the middle of the room with a plant in the center and hooks arranged around it. A small writing desk is at the back. Other furniture suitable to a hotel parlor. Esmeralda is sitting on the sofa and Dorothea at the table as the curtain rises. Both are doing fancy work. Esmeralda. And so, Dorothea, I said, My! Mr. Compton, you dont mean it! And he said, quite tender and deferential, so to speak, My dear Miss Esmeralda, do I ever say things I dont mean So then, of course, I gave him one of my roses, since he wanted it so. Dorothea. Goodness, Esmeralda, how you do talk! I suppose you think Mr....
