Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Peace Negotiations Between the Governments of the South African Republic and the Orange Free State, and the Representatives of the British Government: Which Terminated in the Peace Concluded at Vereeniging on the 31st May, 1902 Minutes appeared in General de Wet s book, but although they were in all probability reliable, yet they had not the seal of an official document. The only way in which the want could be met appeared to be for the Secretaries, who had been appointed by the two Republican Governments to minute the Negotiations, to publish those Minutes after they had been read and approved of as authentic by persons competent to do so. This is what has been done by this publication, which places the reader in possession Of all the correspondence leading up to the Negotiations, exact reports of what was said and done, not only at Vereeniging, but also previously at Klerksdorp, and, finally, all the Negotiations which took place at Pretoria between the two Republican Governments and the British Government, represented by Lord Kitchener and Lord Milner.
