

WarZone (Paperback)

By Anne Olivant

Head Heart, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Warzone is an exciting adventure story set in a not too distant future where the UK is under the harsh rule of a totalitarian regime. Tamsin is fourteen when her dissident parents disappear from their hidden home in the outlands of Cornwall. Although their home has been destroyed she believes her parents are still alive and she sets off on a quest to find them. She must put all the survival skills she has learnt into practice as she, her horse and her dog try and find them. It is difficult to trust any of the people she meets on her way or even to know their true identity. She is ambushed but escapes. She is given directions, but is suspicious of their provenance. In the guise of a boy she joins an itinerant horse-riding troupe that may hold friends or foes. She meets a fellow traveller, Solo, astonishingly on an identical quest. They become firm friends and join forces. Together they embark on the most dangerous part of the journey, to find and free their parents. The trail leads them...
