Not illustrated. 1842 Excerpt: .kingdom; and they never will have it until a principle of remuneration for medical services shall be laid down, and enforced by the poor-law commissioners. The mischief has been done by the hoards of guardians, who have beaten down the doctors to such extent by the tender system, and the introduction of new persons, frequently incompetent as medical men, where the old ones have resisted. That the poor-law commissioners do not like it, appears to me to make them act on any principle which shall have the effect of materially increasing the salaries of the medical officers; although by so doing they will secure to the poor the effective attendance of capable and humane practitioners. I am aware that gentlemen of great ability have been often engaged by the hoards of guardians as union doctors; but then they do not secure their effective services; they only...
