Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Farm Crops Laboratory Manual and Note Book These notes are written to suggest some of the methods of teaching farm crops and also to suggest to the instructor how he may use the exercises in this manual most effectively. The plan is to discuss some of the more important types of laboratory exercises used in teaching farm crops. 1. Identification of Plants and Seeds. - Several methods may be used in order to fix the identity of plants and seeds in the students mind. (a) Drawing. - Drawing seeds and plants necessitates the observation of certain characters which might otherwise escape attention. In the case of seeds a minimum size or standard should be set because the natural tendency of the student is to make the drawings too small. Correct labeling is essential. (b) The Use of a Key. - Keys are in printed form for the identification of such crops as oats, barley, grasses and clovers. Many of these keys should be simplified for use in secondary schools. (c) Descriptive Outlines. - Describing specimens according to...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
