Book 2 of the fantasy books in The Silvering Series and the second in reading order. The end of the evil sorcerer Nepsaril was supposed to be the start of a new life in a magical land for Loran and Topen. Instead, a nightmare looms on the horizon. The mark of dark magic remains on the flesh of Loran s brother and power now dominates his mind. He seeks help from the Listurn, potent magical beings from Topen s realm who could help him strip the sovereignty from his twin. But the opportunistic Listurn may have found a greater purpose for him. A plan is forged within the walls of Avileen castle to retrieve Loran s brother before he succeeds with his quest. If they fail, tyranny could replace the benevolent sovereignty that currently rules, and a long standing peace between two powerful magical families could be shattered.
