SCIENTIFIC CHICANERY: DOES IT PAY? (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Scientific Chicanery: Does It Pay? To one who has ever cherished belief in the existence of a high standard of truth and honor in the intellectual world, no more saddening disillusion can come, than the realization of the untrustworthy character of certain scientific men. To most of us, such revelation causes that shock of intense surprise and keen disappointment which would be occasioned by the discovered dishonesty of an old acquaintance, the treason of a trusted friend. We have been accustomed to judge workers in every field of science by the ideals and example of the illustrious men preceding them, who would have scorned a lie, even in defense of a scientific method, as the basest infidelity to Science herself. Some of us, perhaps, expect dishonesty to exist in trade, and chicanery to find place in political life. But above that lower world of sham and pretense, was - we have thought - one region of purer and diviner air, where-Science and all who served her dwelt; where Truth for its own sake was loved supremely, and where Fraud and Falsehood were alike unknown. But that vision of serener skies and higher ideals has already become dim, and seems destined soon to fade away. Among that class of scientists whose methods of investigation are alone open to criticism, there are many to whom the habit of paltering with truth has become so easy, that their statements upon matters pertaining to vivisection are to-day, utterly without value. For them, the ethics of controversy have no meaning. Relying on the faith inspired by the integrity of men of science as a class, they do not hesitate to promulgate charges of which,...
