Drifter is a young driftwood horse, transformed from a wavelet into a creature of the land. He embarks on a journey across the bottom of England, observing life with fresh eyes. He explores the spirit and history of the land, understanding there is much to be learnt from what exists unseen below the surface. To help him on his way he enlists the help of birds, animals and even the flowers of the countryside. He even meets his friend Boulder, the heavy horse, in another lifetime as well as his present one. Join Drifter on his journey along the beautiful ridge-way, where past and present merge, resulting in some illuminating experiences for the adventurous little horse. Will he reach his ultimate destination Read his story to find out. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
