

Earth s Appetite (Paperback)

By Margaret Hasse

Nodin Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. These poems reflect an astute awareness of associations across time. A beetle crossing a tennis court brings to mind an infant crawling across the floor one who s now asking for the keys to the family car. A jar of golden honey draws readers into the murmur of bees and the scent of basswood flowers. In Earth s Appetite, Hasse offers a lyrical paeon to re-roofing a house and a humorous description of how a dog and its unemployed owner spend a day. Her extended ode to feet, twin girls dressed alike, possesses a Neruda-like simplicity and charm. The book shows Hasse s longstanding mastery of striking imagery. Rung by rung down the ladder of my backbone, she writes, and earth like a love tilts toward and away. The book as a whole reminds us of the quirky ways that lives unfold, strengthening or breaking connections, offering unexpected turns and recurrent, familiar themes.
