Ben Bradlee tells the story of how his lifelong love of working outdoors enabled him to forge an intimate connection with his own son, Quinn, who was born with a heart defect and is learning disabled. Quinn Bradlee writes about how his father gave him courage and confidence, about what it is like not just to be the son of Ben Bradlee but his father's best pal. He tells how their roles have reversed and how he has become his father's protector. 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1 First Edition, First Printing May 2010. Published by Simon and Schuster.
