Laquita is raised in a two parent home. . . unlike most, but she is forced to deal with her parents constant abuse to one another and drugs. By the age of 17, Laquita has to leave home due to circumstances beyond her control. She moves in with her older sister Dashiki, but they don't really get along. Dashiki constantly reminds Quita of just how much she doesn't care for her every chance she gets. Dashiki gives her sister no love what so ever. Love, respect and compassion are out of the door with Dashiki. Feeling like no one loves, or cares for her, Laquita starts looking for love in the opposite sex, only to be disappointed. After a while she hooks up with a local drug dealer, who treats her like no other. He is on the come up and Quita is more than happy to join him. Timmy is that nigga and Quita has him. After Timmy tries to play her like the rest, she falls back into the arms of her high school love Trey....
