Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The American Apiculturist, Vol. 3: A Journal Devoted to Scientific and Practical Beekeeping A Score of years ought to elapse between a man s death and any attempt at his biography or estimate of his life-work. After the lapse of half that time it is plainly too early to write of Mr. Quinby, for his most intimate friends are just beginning to appreciate his merits as a beekeeper, his rank as an inventor, and his worth as a man; while his detractors and usurpers are just beginning to learn that it is hard to kick against the pricks of public opinion and have just begun to sink into a well-earned obscurity. Moses Quinby was born in North Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y., April 15, 1810. At the age of fifteen he removed to Greene Co., and three years after bought his first swarm of bees with money earned by working in a saw-mill. Here with nothing to aid him but a common school education, his wondrous love of nature and his remarkable observational powers, he commenced the study of the...
