

We Never Learned This in Class!: The Reality of Life After College (Paperback)

By Stefana M Albu

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Twenty-somethings are facing more challenges than ever. Job, house, family: it can feel like a checklist of requirements for an amped-up version of graduation. Can a person really have it all, and is age thirty still the deadline for getting it all done? Balancing budgets with an entry level salary is a challenge, but also simultaneously balancing relationships can seem like an uphill battle. Accustomed to perpetual praise, today s twenty-somethings now face a job market that doesn t bode well for them. If I actually was a standout, shouldn t I have snatched up my dream job by now? Or any job for that matter? Then there s the relentless talk of decreased affordability of education as compared to previous generations. They worked hard, got the degree, and landed the job-but it s just not that conventional anymore. Psychologists are rethinking the accepted stages of development, revising them include this new phase of emerging adulthood. Is emerging adulthood an extension of self-exploration? Are millenials actually choosing to take longer growing up or are they facing indomitable challenges? By virtue of dynamic change...
