

Empowered: How Pennsylvania Transformed America, Vol. 2 (Paperback)

By Dr Roger David Kelley

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. At its beginning America could have followed four different paths in becoming a nation. Each path would result in a totally different culture. The path it chose, the Enlightenment, gave Americans the most freedom any people had ever enjoyed under a government. It also gave Americans the self-confidence to achieve what no other people had done. This book is a collection of stories about how this vision was established and the people who helped make this country what it is. There was only one place in colonial America where this vision could start--Pennsylvania. Although all the stories have Pennsylvania as the common element, nearly all have a national appeal. Here are some examples: in the Builders Section, there are stories about how a town was specially built for a European king and queen on the run, how oil was first successfully taken from the ground, how the steel industry became a reality, the creation of the first roller coaster, the first superhighway and the first modern suburb. In the next section are the stories of America's first family of traitors,...
