The great question for the county was debated in many households, daughter-thronged and daughterless, long subsequent to the memorable day of Willoughby s coming of age. Lady Busshe was for Constantia Durham. She laughed at Mrs. Mountstuart Jenkiuson s notion of Lsetitia Dale. She was a little older than Mrs. Mountstuart, and had known Willoughby s father, whose marriage into the wealthiest branch of the Whitford family had been strictly sagacious. Patterne s marry money: they are not romantic people, she said. Miss Durham had money, and she had health and beauty: three mighty qualifications for a Patterne bride. Her father, Sir John Durham, was a large landowner in the western division of the county; a pompous gentleman, the picture of a father-in-law for Willoughby. The father of Miss Dale was a battered army surgeon from India, tenant of...
