Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is a Christian challenge to the Muslims indeed. The author painstakingly brought forward almost all the controversial doctrines between Islam and Christianity to the forefront for discussion. As a pastor, one could feel his passion as he tried to clear the Muslims doubt on some major cardinal teachings of the Bible so as to clear their minds for proper understanding of Christians doctrine which stood between them and their salvation in Christ. The author acknowledges the great challenge Muslims encountered in trying to answer some of these challenges Christians put forward to them. Sometimes the best a Muslim could do is to ignore them and pose as if they do not exist. Both Christians and Muslims who do not have in-debt knowledge of the religion may find this book revealing and expository. This can be a tool for further probing into full knowledge of the tenet of their religion. The book is portable and handy, that a good reader can easily read within few hours. The book should not be approached as a novel, but it flows like a novel and is mind captivating like a trailer that is capable of putting one minds and heart doing some overtime. Islam appears like a religion which accommodates all the philosophy and ideologies of other religions including paganism, yet pretend to be the most monotheistic religion on earth. Its claim of one indivisible, all powerful, merciful, compassionate, all knowing Allah (God) is probably second to none. Nevertheless, when you get into what they call their scriptures the Quran and Hadiths and the Sirah you are chocked with what you find. It becomes a major problem defending it with empirical evidence and...
