Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Parents Guide to College Soccer Recruiting represents a compilation of eight years of constant day-to-day experience in the recruiting process. This guide provides a consolidated and detailed look at the college soccer recruiting process from a parents perspective. It covers positioning a player for recruiting, the recruiting cycle, school considerations, coach s perspective, recruiting process, negotiations and the final decision. It also provides many lessons learned and answers to questions that parents have had about the process. The end goal of this guide is to provide you and your son or daughter the knowledge, tactics and guidance necessary to make informed decisions in the college selection process. It will also provide some money saving tips during the recruiting process. Feedback: A Parents Guide to College Soccer Recruiting has been a wonderful addition to our soccer club s College Advisory Program. The Author s anecdotes, insights, and practical advice help families (parents and players) make sense of the sometimes confusing process of collegiate soccer recruiting.
