AJS Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 184 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. My name is Robert Julius Palasciano and I was murdered on November 29, 1990, the 333rd day of the year. The following chronicle is a factual account of how I died and journeyed to Heaven, the Most Glorious Place. In Heaven, I met Our Lady of Mercy, who saved me from a tragic death and gave me a wondrous gift with a message. Then She returned me to live once more. This is my story of personal revelation. Its led me to understand the mystery of why Our Lady saved and sent me back. This book is about the questions we ask of God and why they arent answered as quickly and painlessly as we would like them to be. Perhaps, He allows us to endure hatred to understand what love truly is; to bear tremendous pain so we can fathom the ecstasy of life. This story is about faith, lost and found. Its beautiful but its also horrific, and I wouldnt have it any other way. My journey for understanding has taken more than twenty years, and my goal is to share the wisdom Ive gained to help survivors of traumatic events. Im not a doctor. Im an ordinary person whos experienced extraordinary events. I believe after twenty three years of coping through the various stages of mental trauma, that Ive developed a certain expertise. Ive learned how to relieve the pain and suffering that it brings to us. Specifically, Ive learned how to relieve my powerful negative feelings of guilt and anger. I have also found new weapons against the influences of our devastating nightmares and Id like to share all that Ive learned with you. Since I returned from Heaven, more than twenty years ago,...
