A Summer to Remember: Bill Veeck, Lou Boudreau, Bob Feller, and the 1948 Cleveland Indians (Hardback)

By Lew Freedman

Sports Publishing LLC, United States, 2014. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 232 x 154 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. While the Cleveland Indians are known lately more for being cellar dwellers than world champions, that wasn't the case in 1948. Ranked by the Sporting News as the ninth-best team in baseball history, the 48 Indians were a colorful group of guys, led by the always colorful Bill Veeck, the future Hall of Famer who was running his first team. But the Indians weren't just well run in the front office; their team on the field was comprised of seven future Hall of Famers. Player-manager Lou Boudreau would not only lead his team to the playoffs, but would also become the first shortstop to ever win the American League's Most Valuable Player award. He also relied on pitchers Bob Feller, Bob Lemon, and Negro leagues legend Satchel Paige (then forty-one years old), as well as second baseman Joe Gordon and right fielder Larry Doby, who followed Jackie Robinson by only a few weeks in breaking the color barrier in baseball. The Indians finished the 48 season at 97--58 and were tied with Joe McCarthy's Boston Red...

Reviews

A whole new electronic book with a new point of view. It can be full of knowledge and wisdom. It's been written in an exceedingly simple way which is only following. I finished reading through this pdf in which really modified me, modify the way in my opinion.
