Xulon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 90 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.2in. An individual's chronic wound (area of vulnerability) seems to mock God's power to bring healing. The wound is often an unidentified exposed place. A place that overtime has been systematically infiltrated and infected by the enemy of our soul. In Nehemiah 4: 13, Nehemiah inspects the wall, and finds the exposed place. He strengthens the walls vulnerabilities by placing guards at the fracture, and he stations men in families equipping them with a sword, spear or bow. The parallel of Jerusalem's fractured wall in this book is equated to a life broken into by engrained problematic sin. This book will help bring healing to the reader as they discover their exposed place, see its origin and patterns of behavior. It will provide the Godly counter intelligence from God's Word to heal and strengthen and in conclusion it will equip you with a fresh understanding of God's powerful provisions to help protect the place of vulnerability. Tony Martorana is a sought after minister of the Gospel, speaking to issues of the heart. He carries the Father's heart and loves the family of God. Tony is serving as senior pastor of Joy Community Church in Rochester NY. He has been married to Susan for 39 years, with 4 children James (1976-1992), Joy, Mark and Melody and they celebrate love with 6 grandchildren. This item ships from multiple locations.
