Excerpt: . . . list of briefs noted on the fly-leaves of the parish registers of Cowley, Oxfordshire, is one for Mitchel Dean Church, Gloucestershire. The damage to the church, or the alteration, the expense of which this general appeal to the Church of England was designed to meet, was estimated at 1, 096. The brief was received and read on 28 October, 1733, and the collection made at Cowley in respect to it amounted to 2s. Id. Can anyone state the particular cause which led to this appeal and does the church show any extensive alterations made about this date Was it then restored-- John Maclean, Bicknor Court, Coleford.
