There will remain but two chances of error in the accounts, viz. : from improper Journal entries, or from posting to the wrong accounts. In order to afford this additional test, we have found it necessary to carry into the Trial Balance the total footings of the Ledger. If we desired only to test the balances, this would not be necessary, as will be seen from the following example: We have here a test of equal debits and credits quite as satisfactory as the other, and much more brief, upon the principle...
