THE PLATONIA CHAMBER (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The ruthless persecution of Christians in Rome by Emperor Valerian in 258 AD connects two men with similar backgrounds, but completely different lifestyles.Both began life as orphans on the streets of Rome. One, a Christian Deacon, dedicates his life to serving the Bishop of Rome and the poor. The other, a stonemason, reacts in horror as his secure and happy life is turned upside down after he discovers his adoptive parents have become Christians. The two meet when the stonemason s father needs assistance completing a catacomb tomb that will hide the two most sacred Christian relics and save them from desecration by the Roman authorities.The story, based on documented events occurring during Valerian s brutal Christian persecution, incorporates an excellent insight into the life and rituals of the early Christians in Rome.
