

Diary of a Called (Paperback)

By Ebony Bankole-Laoye

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this book, the author shares her painful past experience of living between divorced parents. Her story is an example of how easy it is for a child to fall through the cracks in an uncivil divorce situation. Notwithstanding the clutches of a despairing past, she exhibits the true spirit of a survivor, facing every challenge with the determination to overcome and keep pressing on. Her resolve to keep the dream alive and ultimately fulfill purpose and destiny truly makes her qualified to speak hope and healing into another person's life. As the author puts it, a life that will eventually affect and enrich others must be a life that is completely broken of every self-will and selfishness, and is yielded to being a tool in the hands of the Lord Jesus Christ to bless others. With scriptural references for healing, and pointers on self-help, this book is not just a good read, but is also a good reference book for overcoming life's sometimes-painful events.
