FROM THE BOOK Giuseppe Petrosino, who went by the Americanized name Joe Petroseena, was born in Padula near Salerno, Italy on August 30th 1860. His family emigrated to America in 1873. Young Petrosino decided to become a cop after shining patrolmens shoes outside of police headquarters on Mulberry Street. In his teens applied to the Irish dominated force but was rejected. He was too short, too swarthy, spoke with an accent and wasnt Irish. An Italian woman rag-picker in her living space, with her packs of junk, few possessions including her straw hat hung on the wall behind her, and a child in her lap. In 1878 Petrosino became a City street sweeper and won a promotion to foreman within a year. In 1879, Petrosino got a break when Police Captain Alexander Clubber Williams was assigned to command the street cleaning department. The New York City Police force if the mid- nineteenth-century was full of goons, enforcers, thieves and extortionists. Some precincts were richer than others and offered more graft and gravy and for the many crooked cops...
