Mind Unlimited Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.An illuminating examination of A Course in Miracles. This book offers a clear and penetrating explanation of the profound teachings claimed to have been given by Jesus to psychologist Helen Schucman as A Course In Miracles. It gives coherent and insightful clarifications of its crucially important topics, particularly its four meanings of love as: absolute Love as the creative energy present in God and all perfect minds, and the nature of what Love creates to produce a Universe of Love ; illusory love, as the distorted form of love that rules the lives of most people, based; primarily on the attachment to ego, which results in the experience of suffering, both physical and psychological, particularly as a part of special relationships; imperfect love, as the first stage of realizing genuine love, particularly the nature and role of miracles as a way of bringing complete inner and outer healing through total forgive-ness or letting go; perfect love, as the highest stage of love s realization possible for human beings, which centers on the experience of the holy instant and the maturing of special relationships into holy relationships. Especially illuminating is how the Course s teachings on absolute Love resolve one of traditional Christianity s (and Judaism s and Islam s) most serious logical problems: that although God is infinite and all-powerful Love, He created a universe in which evil, pain and suffering exist. The Course sees this as a serious misconception, based primarily on the inclination of ego-dominated minds to construct religious doctrines that preserve their ego-centeredness. It thus proposes a radically different view. The author brings a lifetime of experience to A Course in Miracles, using philosophical methods to examine and...
