From The Bestselling Author Of Listen, Just Once A CONTEMPORARY ROMANCE When Bonnie s Cousin goes to prison just for having the wrong friends, She goes faithfully to visit him. She notices the good looking guard there all the time, but feels it would be awkward to approach him. Dean watches Bonnie every time she comes to the prison and finds himself falling for the frequent visitor with the speed of a freight train. When he hears her singing one day, there in the visiting room, he realizes he just has to get to know her. The question is, how? Then when she s viciously attacked by a violent prisoner, he realizes how much she means to him. Can these two overcome their hesitance and find a way to be together?.
