Excerpt: . . . conviction of the existence of another life. It cannot be objected to this that the testimony of a good conscience, or the hope of reward, are a sufficient sanction to the natural law; for experience shows that a time comes for some men when these impressions are of no avail. 5th. It is proved by the consequences which would be the result of the contrary belief. Note. --The eternal duration of the other life is not in contradiction to reason. CHAPTER FOURTH. Of The Souls Of Animals. Besides God, the angels and the human soul, there is the inferior soul of animals. By this soul we mean the principle by which the animal has its life. Let us examine, first, what are the faculties of this soul, and, second, what is its nature and destination. Article First. --The Faculties Of The Souls Of Animals....
