A strange freak of Antiquarian passion it might be termed by the utilitarian spirit that browses but for the present and within its narrow animal verge. But how tender, - though eccentric be his recluseness, - is the taste of that old votary of the tablets of the dead. It is his to retrace and revive the characters of the memorial which affection has committed to the silent stone, and to recal from decay the recorded tribute of sorrow - to bring to life the virtue which graces the ruin of the mouldering frame, and at the sepulchre to; light up the example that is to give lineaments for the future. Let a kindred zeal glow but within the limits of sect or party, I still it is a virtuous zeal. Let it be the pride of honoured heraldry and spotless lineage, the impulse is yet of noble birth and holds...
