Amidst all this, Syan, a young botanist, goes to the valley of Tuwau to find her anthropologist grandfather who left the family because he was accused of being an apostate. There she meets the Imorot. Her grandfather had lived with and written about them. But she is surprised to find a change in their lives and beliefs. This is due to the presence of Hira, a special person amongst them. Hira is revealed to be a clone of the Prophet. Intercession is the story of Syan's journey and search for love, truth and meaning.
