Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Barbara Flaglore Milligan (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Meet Jim Milligan, the true story of an Alabama boy born in 1949, who was raised in Chicago in the 50 s and 60 s. This street-smart kid went to Vietnam during the height of the war, and came home a hero. But, during that time, protests were going on over this controversial war, and there was really no welcome home for these young boys who risked their lives. The story begins with a simple two day trip in 2004 that lasted two months. During these two months, many aspects of Jim s life are unfolded to the reader. The story depicts how this young man faced so many challenges during his lifetime and how he overcame poverty, adversity and war.
