

The Constant Child

By K M Edwards

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Fifty-seven year old Marion McAdams von Muellerstahl s husband dies at sixty years of age from a congenital heart malfunction. Marion is devastated by her loss and begins a course of therapy to deal with a depression that has begun to effect every part of her life. A few years later Marion wants to retire and leave Chicago, but she discovered in therapy that must face some unresolved issues from her childhood and give up some old hurts before she can move effectively into a new life phase. She leaves her job, her adult children, and her young grandchildren in the Chicago area and moves to the small northeastern Missouri river town of Berger where she lived as a child; hoping to reunite with her large extended family and finally face her past. She buys and renovates a small farm just outside of Berger and is quickly welcomed into the family fold by members of her four Berger families (both of her parents were born and raised in Berger). She is happily reunited with her best childhood friend,...
