

Documentary history of the General Council of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in North America

By Solomon Erb Ochsenford

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 212 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.5in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1912 edition. Excerpt: . . . authorized to publish an edition of the German Sunday-School Book without music, and permission was granted to add new matter to the book, according to their best judgment. The committee was authorized to determine the number of books which dealers may purchase of the printer. Ash Wednesday was recommended as a day of fasting and prayer, and the synods were requested to urge its proper observance annually by their congregations. A resolution was passed memorializing the Northern Pacific Railroad to donate lots for churches, schools, and parsonages for the benefit of Lutheran congregations at all the leading stations along the railroad, and a committee was appointed to carry the resolution into effect. A minute on the death of President Garfield was entered on the Minutes of the convention. The officers of the Council were instructed to inquire whether there are any legal or practical...

READ ONLINE
[ 5.01 MB ]

Reviews

This book is great. I have go through and so i am confident that i will going to read through once again again in the future. I am just easily can get a satisfaction of looking at a written book.

-- Miss Vernie Schimmel

The book is easy in study easier to comprehend. I have study and that i am certain that i will gonna read once again once again in the foreseeable future. Your lifestyle span will likely be transform the instant you comprehensive reading this pdf.

-- Dr. Jaydon Mosciski