

How Do You Say That in French?

By Sally Delaney, Wendy Richards, Ruth Galloway,

Hardback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; It's fun to learn French with this visual phrasebook. It covers a variety of everyday subjects and situations, from l'école (school) to le supermarché (the supermarket) and from decoucher (a sleepover) to la piste de patinage (the skatepark). It includes an English-French dictionary of the key words covered in the book, followed by a list of further core French terms. Ruth Galloway's lively and engaging illustrations of familiar scenes bring each topic and setting to life, making the book easily accessible for young people writing to penpals, struggling with French homework, or preparing for a trip abroad. It is ideal for home and school use for 7- to 11-year-olds. It's easy to find out how to say 'table' in French, but what if you want to communicate something more complicated - and more important? This lively and accessible book provides you with key vocabulary and valuable phrases for every eventuality, from 'Can we have our ball back, please?' to 'Help, I'm drowning!' It covers a range of different areas - everything from down-to-earth family relationships to the far-distant reaches of outer space! An in-depth glossary of terms at the back of the book completes...

READ ONLINE
[ 3.97 MB ]

Reviews

It becomes an amazing pdf which i actually have at any time read through. This can be for all those who stante there had not been a worthy of reading through. You wont sense monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for relating to should you check with me).

-- Claud Kris

If you need to adding benefit, a must buy book. It is writter in easy words and phrases and not difficult to understand. Your daily life span is going to be transform when you complete reading this article publication.

-- Ricky Leannon