Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.I like mysteries. From tales of ghosts to haunted places, I have always enjoyed reading books and watching movies about things that go bump in the night. I love watching the ID Channel, The one thing that unsettles me however, is tales of unsolved murders. I always cry when I hear of someone being murdered and years and years later their killer has still not been brought to justice. Serval years ago, the newspapers, ID channel and news outlets were fascinated by The Long Island Serial Killer. A murderer(s) who have killed up to 10 to 16 innocent victims and has never been caught. What disturbed me most about this case was, I was sickened by the details of young men and woman who worked as escorts who had people who loved them, who had children themselves being murdered and killed and simply forgotten because they were Hookers! As a Christian woman it goes against everything I believe in to judge a book by its cover, why should these young men and women be over looked just because they lived a lifestyle that was not what society calls Normal? No, I did not know any of the victims, but anyone with a beating heart should have compassion for someone who has been murdered. I do not know any of the victims in any of the stories I am about to share. I don t know their families, or friends or children, I do feel compassion and love for every single one of them however. If by writing this book, I bring one of their murderers to justice then I will say this is all worth it. I am a woman, a wife,...
