About the usual number of tents adorned our bowery retreat, and about the usual number of friends lodged on the ground. Our congregations were large, attentive, and solemn. An excellent spirit, the hallowing spirit of love and of grace divine, pervaded the encampment from the first to the last. Peace and harmony reigned in all our borders. We have had many good meetings on this hallowed spot, but, for the excellency of its spirit, never one better than the present. So say many dear brethren who have attended here from year to year. One of the aged fathers in the ministry, who had never been with ua in this grove before, but who had attended a great many similar meetings elsewhere, declared that although he had been present at larger meetings, he had never attended one that proceeded so much to his mind as this. The fact is, we had not only great peace among ourselves, and good management by our superintendent and others who had charge of the public exercises, but, truly, The Lord was with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets. For the first public exercise, instead of a set sermon, we had addresses from several brethren with especial reference to the best methods of getting good and being useful at a camp meeting. The first tune was thus wisely selected, and it was rightly pitched. We...
