We have so many break-away in our churches today, because many have not understood the place of divine relationship between a father and his son. From this book you will discover that it takes a father for you to go further. Any son that is fatherless is helpless. It is the spirit of rebellion that hates leadership. There will be a lot of struggles for you in ministry without a mentor. The truth is, your success will be very slow without a mentor, your mentors reproves may be harsh, his chastisement for the moment may very tough and a bitter pills; however, it will only take a little time for you to know how indeed you need him to avoid a lot of mistakes! Mentor teaches you the discipline upon which your future is will be built.
