Excerpt: . . . and naval subsidies, and building and sailing bounties paid by chief shipping nations. Second. --Lower wages to mechanics in foreign shipyards, machine shops and dry docks, and lower wages to officers and seamen, and lower cost of maintenance on shipboard. Third. --Hostile discrimination of British Lloyds in respect to inspection and classification, and of English underwriters in regard to the insurance of cargoes in American built ships, compelling vessels under our flag to wait longest for charters and to receive always the lowest rates of freight. Fourth. --Competition of the severest kind with all the shipping of the world, in consequence of the free shipping policy of our own Government since 1828, and no attention given by Congress nor any action taken to secure equal footing and fair play to our shipping under the unequal and destructive competition which it has invited, and which has subordinated our shipping service to the will and caprice of our rivals and enemies, driven our people and our flag from the high seas and crippled our right arm of national defence. --Wm. W. Bates. SHEEP. --Their number, average price and value on farms in the United States: Though this policy was adopted in 1828, its operation was confined to the smaller maritime powers until 1850. The extension of the provision of this act to Great Britain at the commencement of that year is the cause of our loss of maritime position. SHEEP. --Number in Australia in 1871, 49,...
