Living with Vulnerabilities and Opportunities in a Migration Context: Floating Children and Left-Behind Children in China (Paperback)

By Guanglun Mu, Yang Hu

Sense Publishers, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The past two decades have seen exponential growth of urbanisation and migration in China. Emerging from this growth are a myriad population of floating children and left-behind children and the ever greater social-spatial interpenetration that places these children at risk of undesirable wellbeing. The living and schooling of these children are fraught with potholes and distractions in the context of migration and urbanisation. Extant work often treats floating children and left-behind children as two discrete populations and comes to grips with their wellbeing separately. The deficit model and the do-gooder approach have prevailed for a long time, intending to fix the problems and correct the abnormalities associated with these children. This book differs, however, in its efforts to blur the dichotomy between floating children and left-behind children; in its transformative view and strength-based approach that recast vulnerabilities into opportunities; and in its focus on the nurture of enabling ecologies instead of the nature of individual inferiorities. The book grapples with social inequality, inclusivity, and diversity through the discussions of wellbeing, wellbecoming, and resilience of floating children and left-behind children. It invites families,...
