

The Pantheist: Or the Dial of Progress (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Charles Orendorff

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Pantheist: Or the Dial of Progress On a certain occasion when Themistocles of Greece was making a Speech to his people, his life was endangered by the violence of a mob. Says he, Strike, but hear me. I court as much forbearance from the reader, when in the course of these writings, I make innovations on his preconceived Opinions, by exposing their folly, and showing up his per sistent inconsistency. Jefferson said, It is right to tolerate error when reason is left free to combat it, and every one who has the capacity to reason, and who has any confidence that his opinions are right, must sub scribe to this principle; and it presumes that there are no privileged in dividuals or favored classes who have the right to say for others what is truth.or what is error, but that all alike have the right not only to think for themselves, but to assert or write any Opinion so long as it can be maintained by reason. I rejoice to believe that reason is king over nearly all questions in...
