Best friends Savannah, Leah and Tiana are enjoying their last semester of college. They cant wait to graduate and live the good life they had heard so many people talk about. Once reality sets in, and financial aid is no longer available, they must each learn how to rely on themselves, rather than others. Thats easier said than done for most of them, and sometimes looking for the easiest way out isnt always a solution. Can they all get it together in time, or will they succumb to their environment and get Caught Up This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
