THE WIDOW S HOUSE: POEMS (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Brighthorse Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . These are lovely poems. I have come to think of widowhood as transpersonal almost-it will strike those who are reckless enough to become wives and can recall so intensely the feeling of being in the hospital-vigil with an ending not yet known. -Joyce Carol Oates, author of A Widow s Story I love this book! It s very moving and complex both. A fearless journey into the mystery of grief and love and loss. Her powers of observation are so accurate and careful . . . and tough. -Jonis Agee, author of The Bones of Paradise So many poems today say so much but I experience so little-I understand all right, but I don t get pushed into second gear, don t get moved into the feeling that is meant to be offered up, no rough leap into the world off the page. This leap happens in a poem like On Green. -Alberto Rios, author of A Small Story about the Sky She knows how to take risks, how to deliver sharp pathos. . . . This eloquent book is her obligation to her beloved. She remembers. Listen, she writes, I am never lonely when I can imagine you. Perhaps this brave book saves her life. -Michael Dennis Browne, author of The Voices This honest and unflinching collection does not leave the reader without hope: Right at the worst time of your life someone/helps you in some way, she writes. You must take the least shred of it in, and she does. -Joyce Sutphen, Minnesota Poet Laureate, author of Modern Love and Other Myths.
