

Smokescreen

By Dick Francis

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; This is a classic mystery from Dick Francis, the champion of English storytellers. Edward Lincoln has scaled the Himalayas, survived deadly car chases and defeated scores of assassins. As a movie action man he's even suffered stoically at the hands of sadistic directors. After finishing his latest film, he's asked to visit South Africa to discover why a dying friend's horses are suddenly failing on the race track. Unfortunately, Lincoln's attempt to help a friend soon puts him in harm's way. From a nearly fatal interview to a dangerous accident in a gold mine, it seems only luck is keeping him alive. And in life, unlike the big-screen, there's no coming back from dead. Praise for Dick Francis: As a jockey, Dick Francis was unbeatable when he got into his stride. The same is true of his crime writing. (Daily Mirror). Dick Francis' fiction has a secret ingredient - his inimitable knack of grabbing the reader's attention on page one and holding it tight until the very end. (Sunday Telegraph). The narrative is brisk and gripping and the background researched with care. the entire story is a pleasure to relish. (Scotsman). Francis...
