Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Handy Book for Planters and Lovers of Nature: With Valuable Hints in General Planting of all kinds has been carried out on an enormous scale, and to a great extent it is largely due to many well-to-do settlers who have their estates laid out in beautiful country homes. For the past twenty years there has been more of this interesting: work done than ever has been known in this country before, and! many hints have been given to aid this interesting work. However many writers and advisors of this great problem do not always realize that this kind of work chiefly depends on the different locations, climate and soil. It will therefore be almost impossible for anyone without practical experience to be a trustworthy guide. For the past twenty years there have been many questions submitted from all parts of the country and the writer finds great pleasure in giving the result of his long experience in this direction. The Preparation For Planting. It is of great importance to have the ground and soil...
