When she arrives, she will save everyone on Earth from certain death. Or she will kill them all. What remains of mankind clings to the high ground of a world flooded and trapped in a perpetual ice age. Cerebus Command, the rulers of Rhone, the fortress ark storing Earths carefully preserved biomes, wants nothing to do with the plan to break the shroud hanging above the planet. But any good plan will have a secret backup just in case. Odessa, a nineteen-year-old MEDcadet, witnesses the murder of her anatomy professor and finds herself in fear for her life. Fighting recurring panic attacks while sailing from her home on Rhone across the Eastern Sea to Earthland, Odessa manages to keep what shes seen to herself. To her horror, however, when the vessel docks, she and her podmatestwo who, like Odessaare genetically engineered, are arrested by the very security force who committed the crime. Reynal Krlik, an eighteen-year-old trading post sled driver on Earthland, longs for Clearsky, though hes never known anything but the gray shroud that darkens the atmosphere. After he and his fellow messengers foil an assassins attempt to kill Odessa and her companions, he whisks them away, only to discover he and she are tangled up on opposite sides of the same secret mission to slam an asteroid into Earthone for which Rey will be the asteroid driver. Rey and Odessaalong with their friends and a dangerous outlawrace against time to escape Earthland, but can they evade Cerebus flagship war zeppelin in order for Rey to complete the task for which he was destined A destiny Odessa was taught to deny and will fight to...
