

Paradise Plums and Cocoa Beans: Schizophrenia and Celia's Longing for Home (Paperback)

By Claudia De Verteuil

Heddon Publishing, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In 1958 at the age of fourteen, Celia de Verteuil left her French Creole family and home in Trinidad. Having been diagnosed with schizophrenia, Celia was destined for the United Kingdom, to receive treatment and care for her illness. Celia lived the rest of her life in the UK and never saw Trinidad again. Following Celia's death in 2013, her sister Claudia - who, after coming to live in the UK herself, became Celia's confidante and companion - has undertaken to document Celia's life, with help from correspondence between Celia and other family members. Also to understand Celia's situation, her illness, and the system which Celia entered at the age of fourteen and in which she lived the rest of her life. Paradise Plums and Cocoa Beans is an honest and moving account of a young woman's separation from her family and the place she called home - and the effect of this not only on her but on those who loved her. It tackles a very difficult subject which is still often undervalued and misunderstood.

Reviews

This book is definitely worth acquiring. I have gone through and so I am certain that I will likely to read through again again in the future. It's been printed in an exceptionally basic way in fact it is only after I finished reading this publication in which actually altered me, change the way in my opinion.

Comprehensive guide for publication fanatics. This really is for all who state there had not been a well worth reading through. I discovered this ebook from my dad and I encouraged this book to find out.
