EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION OF EDUCATION: EDUCATION REFORM-2017 (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The problems of the existing educational paradigm have been huge, yet the solution is simple. This book clearly describes what is wrong, how to fix it, how we got here, and how to avoid going there ever again. Forty years of extensive and diverse experience in education have been focused and distilled to equip you to pull back the curtain, talk the language, understand the concepts, and propose your own solutions that will rapidly transform the current compliance-driven model into an engaging, beckoning pathway leading all students towards fulfilling adulthood. The current system assumes that the crumbs falling from the table of the college-bound are adequate fare for the majority who are not-so-bound. One model of vehicle could never meet all transportation needs. Likewise, one set of educational standards, such as the Common Core, can never meet all students needs. A separate set of practical standards must be offered for the majority who do not aspire towards, will not attend, nor will complete college. There are three basic questions regarding education. Why are we teaching? What are we teaching? And how are we teaching? A UPS delivery person knows how to get a computer package to your door. That person does not know how to design or install the computer. By virtue of institutional isolation, educators know how to deliver knowledge, but do not know what knowledge is necessary for vocation-bound students. Only when end users, those skilled and knowledgeable in their field of expertise are asked to vet educational standards will the what of education finally be appropriate, relevant, and engaging for the millions who are now dis-served, dis-interested and dropping out. The why of education is also insightfully addressed, suggesting...
