The People: In Your Neighborhood

By Michael Wasiura

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 246 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.6in. The shock of the 2016 election was not that Donald Trump won it was that he could be in a position to win. The surprise was not that one hundred thousand people spread across Wisconsin, Michigan, and Pennsylvania altered the course of history it was that, in a country of three hundred and twenty million mostly decent people, a man who promised to annihilate decency could top thirty percent. Were there idiots and jerks who voted for Donald Trump Certainly. But there are not 62, 985, 106 of them. Had there been only 62, 885, 105, Hillary Clinton may have become president, but the frustrations and misunderstandings and prejudices and calculations and hopes and fears that persuaded even that many of your neighbors to lend their individual voice to this con artist would have remained. This book cannot claim to explain Trumps Midwestern appeal in full. It can only offer the perspectives of seventeen residents of Muskegon County a struggling post-industrial semi-urban space on the shores of Lake Michigan that, on November 8, 2016, cast 5080 more votes for an abrasive B-list celebrity...
