All the bills of lading were defective in not expressing upon whose account and risque the several parts of the cargo were shipped; and several referred to acquittances under bond, of which the Captain was therein declared to be the bearer. November 27, the Court restored the ship as the property of Lubeckers, with freight and expences of the Master, to be charged upon the cargo; and decreed sarther proof of property to be made by all parties who might have interest. No other claims being given in, the cause came on to be heard upon sarther proof of property by affidavits, with consent of parties. In regard to Martinus Tak, a certificate was offered, made by the magistrates of Middleburgh, of Zealand in Holland, dated December 17, 1778, setting forth that Tak, being of the Menonite persuasion of religion, (a sort...
