How do you incorporate your love of God into your work life? Do you find yourself overwhelmed with stress from work and family obligations? Are you seeking spiritual guidance as you learn to navigate all that is expected of us in life? This book provides guidance and meditations on letting your truest values fulfill you, how to practice being Christ-like, and how to wade the storm of work, relationships, and stress by focusing on your most important life: your spiritual life. This book is crafted from the life lessons of Mark Prather, a 30 year successful businessman who views his career success as second to his truest endeavors: pursuing a better relationship with God. On each page you will find a meditation on an important element in your daily life coupled next to lined pages providing you the space to think and write about these concepts freely. This collection of meditations is for followers of Christ seeking practical daily guidance on work and love and how to stay grounded in a chaotic world full of earthly distractions.
